Barry I. Hollander joined the firm in 2007 as Of Counsel specializing in the drafting and prosecution of patent applications in the food technology, pharmaceutical, and polymer arts with respect to compositions, methods, and apparatus. Barry has considerable experience working with inventors on patentability analysis, freedom to operate matters, infringement issues, and validity opinions. He handles contested matters before the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office including interferences and ex parte reexaminations and represents clients on appeals to the PTAB.

Barry also advises clients on international portfolios, due diligence matters, and license agreements.

He also has considerable experience in drafting and prosecuting trademark applications, and providing counseling to clients on registrability, and trademark disputes.

Before joining the firm, Barry was a Patent Examiner at the U.S. Patent & Trademark Office for 4 years and was in private practice for 30 years.
